| Adhesive | note pads.

First aid for ideas.

Adhesive note pads – the best way to write down important information at home, at work or during training sessions. Thanks to the adhesive layer, the notes can be left virtually everywhere and they can be attached repeatedly so the information stays available. They help to organize, synchronize and tidy your work, studies or leisure time. Very useful when you want to remind your loved ones about something important.

Each of the attached notes, in spite of the individual information, also carries an advertisement, ubiquitous just like them. We offer a wide array of adhesive note pads to meet all expectations.

| Note | cubes.

Look, write, rest!

Something more than just a set of pages.
Due the possibility of printing an advertisement on each side of the cube, the presented information becomes more visible. At the same time, note cubes are highly practical – always close at hand whenever an unexpected necessity to write something down occurs.
In brief – a note cube is an office must have!
We offer standard or adhesive note cubes.

Adhesive memoboards.

Grasp what is important.

Adhesive memoboards create a convenient space to collect important data, ideas and inspirations. The boards are covered with a layer of special glue which allows sticking of cards and small objects without the use of pins or scotch tape. You can stick almost anything on them instantly, which is practical and handy. Eventually, as they fill with memos, they help to create unique collections and an ad can be printed as a background for company branding.
