

STANLEY®

LEADING THE INDUSTRY FOR OVER 100 YEARS

William Stanley invented the all-steel vacuum bottle in 1913. Since then, we've never stopped innovating. We've always been the category leader in performance and design. We're constantly striving to surpass your toughest demands and your highest expectations. When you work harder, take on more, go further, up your game — so do we. It's your toughness, endurance, pride and determination that drove us to a higher level of performance in our Spring 2017 line.
